

BRIGANDS MAY BE CAPTURED

Kidnapers of Miss Stone Located on a Mountain Near Gultepe.

TROOPS NEAR THEM

Fear That the American Missionary May Already Have Met Her Fate.

FRIENDS STILL HOPE

Constantinople, Oct. 9.—Advices received here state that the eighteen brigands who are guarding Miss Stone, the kidnapped American missionary, have been located on a mountain near Gultepe on the Turkish-Bulgarian frontier and are being surrounded by troops.

The Turkish and Bulgarian troops are co-operating for the capture of the band. The Bulgarian government promised to do its utmost to bring the brigands to justice.

ANXIETY FOR MISS STONE

The Abducted Missionary May Have Already Met Her Fate.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—The time limit set by the brigands who abducted Miss Stone, the American missionary, in Bulgaria, has passed, and whether the woman is alive or her captors have carried out their threat, is unknown. Naught official has been learned regarding the fate of Miss Stone, although her friends here are encouraged by the report of a respite. They insist, however, that the ransom money will have to be paid and urge all Christians to contribute to the fund which now is $1,574 more than half the sum needed.

Hope to Raise Rest of Money.

One story from Bulgaria—that $35,000 of the ransom money has been sent to the United States consul at Constantinople for payment to the brigands—brings hope to those interested in the raising of the fund, and if contributions continue they are confident the missionary will soon be free.

Bulgaria Is Now Aroused.

Philippopolis, Bulgaria, Oct. 9.—Public interest in the fate of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the kidnapped American missionary, is becoming more intense here. There is widespread condemnation of the government for allowing such freedom to the Macedonian committee as to enable it to plan the outrage. Miss Stone resided here before she went to Salonica, and she is well known throughout the country. The patriotic Bulgarians are incensed, as they recognize that Miss Stone and her colleagues of the American missions in Bulgaria and Macedonia have been their best friends throughout the troubles. There is no lack of indications that Prince Ferdinand is impelling his own position by permitting such license to the committee as to enable it to blackmail prominent persons in support of the Macedonian cause.

Consul General Dickinson, who was here on his way to Sofia from Constantinople, thought it probable that the brigands understood from headquarters that the ransom would not be paid they would release Miss Stone, as the Macedonian cause would not be helped by the murder of the woman.

Ransom Money Sent.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Not since the successful attempt to save the life of John Hays Hammond, the American engineer implicated in the Jameson raid, has the state department put forth such energetic efforts to save a human life as it is now exerting in behalf of Miss Stone, the American missionary captured by Bulgarian bandits. A sum of money has been forwarded by cable to Spencer Eddy, United States secretary of legation at Constantinople, who has shown remarkable energy and ability in unearthing the ramifications of the plot which resulted in the kidnapping of Miss Stone.

EPIDEMIC OF SMALLPOX AT ASHLAND; ALARM OVER NORTHERN WISCONSIN

Shot Gun Quarantine Is Being Maintained in Many Places—Superior and Babcock Report the Disease.

Ashland, Wis., Oct. 9.—Twenty more cases of smallpox were discovered on the Bad River reservation today, making ninety all told.

No tickets are sold from the reservation and the Northwestern railway company has been requested not to stop trains at the reservation.

The state board of health, the government officers and the city officials, of Ashland are working in harmony in attempting to stop the spread of the disease.

Indians are already leaving the reservation by boat and through the timber and no doubt the disease will spread to Red Cliff reservation, Bayfield and other places. The reservation is but eight miles from Ashland, a government road leading to the city. An officer will be stationed on this road and a shotgun quarantine will be maintained.

Smallpox at West Superior.

West Superior, Wis., Oct. 9.—Three new cases of smallpox were discovered at the east end of the city by the health department today. There is one case in each of three families, but all of one family showed symptoms of the disease and they were all put in the isolation hospital. This makes five cases of the disease in the city after freedom from contagion from some little time.

Smallpox Closes Schools.

Babcock, Wis., Oct. 9.—The schools of this city were closed today by the board of health on account of a case of smallpox in the home of P. Loshner.

Stubbs police judge. The entire Republican ticket was successful. Thomas Taggart retires as mayor after six years in office.

Miss E. Louise Williams has received a letter from Manila notifying her that a young man who has been serving Uncle Sam intends coming here to take a course in her business school.

SCHLEY PUT UPON RETIRED LIST; MORE THAN 40 YEARS IN THE NAVY

The Admiral Spent 18 Years at Sea and 25 Years on Shore Duty for Uncle Sam—The Court of Inquiry Session Today.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Admiral Schley went upon the retired list today after more than forty years of service in the navy. He spent eighteen years, much longer than the average, at sea and twenty-five on shore duty.

The morning session of the Schley court opened with Lieut. Bristol, a watch officer on the Texas during the war, on the stand. He gave his opinion again that the stadimeter was a very unreliable instrument for measuring distances.

Blockade Declared Valueless.

This witness was particularly severe in his criticism of Rear Admiral Schley's conduct during the blockade at Cienfuegos and in other events of the campaign. He testified that the blockade at Cienfuegos was really no blockade at all, and that it would have been possible for vessels to have gone in and out of the harbor at night without being observed by the flying squadron, unless the vessels passed near the American ships. Bristol did not know of the presence of any pickets with in the line, but when his memory was refreshed by Mr. Rayner he recalled that the Dupont and Cassine were within the line during the night.

LaFollette, accompanied by Mrs. LaFollette, Miss Kate Fox and Dr. Philip Fox, yesterday afternoon went to the Fox farm, about ten miles from Madison, to secure out door air and exercise, and at the same time immunity from visitors and friends inseparable from his appearance on the streets in Madison.

The governor expects to remain in the country for a week or ten days, after which, if his health continues to improve, he may try the effect of a change of climate and complete rest from official business by a short trip to the East and South.

Dr. Fox today furnished the following statement regarding the condition of Governor LaFollette: "The governor's condition is rapidly improving and it is reasonable to expect a continuance of improvement so that he will in a short time be able to resume his official duties."

NO LENIENCY FOR CASHIER.

Charles A. Johnson Sentenced to Ten Years at Hard Labor.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 9.—Charles A. Johnson, former cashier of the First National Bank of Niles, Mich., was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment at hard labor at the Detroit House of Correction. Attorney L. Knappen addressed the court in his behalf, and pleaded for leniency on the grounds that Johnson became involved in his endeavor to save the bank from wreck after many bad loans had been made. Judge Warty, in sentencing Johnson, said he could not conceive of any way Johnson was trying to save the bank by embezzling $150,000 from the stockholders and depositors, and that, as the crime covered many years, Johnson would have relative time to reflect on his conduct.

WISCONSIN HORSE WON THE FUTURITY

Peter Sterling, Owned by a Chicago Man, But Bred and Raised at Berlin, Wins Kentucky Event.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—The ninth renewal of the classic Kentucky futurity, the greatest annual trotting event for three-year-olds, was trotted yesterday afternoon and won by the Wisconsin colt Peter Sterling in impressive style and record breaking time.

Of the fifteen youngsters eligible, but six went to the post, with Walnut Hal a decided favorite at odds of $100 to $70 for the field. Peter Sterling was the "concessed" hope of the field buyers, and he trotted the favorite into submission in the most decisive fashion.

The winner is an extremely and blood-like chestnut, bred and owned by D. C. Palmeter of Chicago, whose breeding farm, Riverside Park, is at Berlin, Wis. He is a son of Baronmore, 2:14 1-4, and Medco, by Cooper Medium, and has now raced in four straight races and has never lost a heat. His victory today was worth $7,500 to his owner.

MARQUIS OF ITO REACHES ST. PAUL

He Says That Japan Is in No Danger from Russia—He Is Traveling for His Health.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 9.—The man who made Japan will be the guest of Chicago within two days. Traveling by easy stages and with much democratic simplicity, the Marquis Ito, the "Japanese Bismarck," regarded by his countrymen as the great Oriental creative genius, reached St. Paul yesterday afternoon on his way to the East.

"I am here for my health," he said. "The 'Creator of Modern Japan' has been to the United States four times. This is his fifth visit. He has no official position now under the emperor and he says there is no crisis threatened in Japan which would make his presence at home a necessity."

According to his statements, Russia is no longer a menace to the peace of Japan, commercial relations are becoming healthier, his country's relations with the nations are good, and, there being no reason why he should not take a trip for his health, he has taken it.

THE REPUBLICANS ARE ALL ELECTED

Democrats Suffer an Overwhelming Defeat in the Indianapolis Municipal Election.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—The republicans were successful in the city election yesterday, electing practically the entire ticket. The majorities range from 800 to 1,200. Charles A. Bookwalter was elected mayor, Charles N. Elliott, clerk, and George W. Stubbs, police judge. The republicans gained in nearly every precinct of the 195 in the city and a very large vote was cast.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rentschler have returned home from a delightful European trip. They were absent from home three months, and visited relatives in the old country.

GAME WARDEN TO VISIT ROCK CO. TO LOOK AFTER ILLEGAL HUNTERS

The Number of Licenses Issued in This County is Small as Compared with Other Counties.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 9.—(Special)—State Game Warden Overbeck is planning to send some deputies into Rock county to look after illegal hunters. The number of licenses issued by Rock county this year, while larger by about 200 than last year, is still too small in comparison with other counties and it is believed there are a number there who are hunting without a license.

Ten Indians who were hunting in the woods in Oconto county without a license were arrested a day or two ago by Deputy Warden W. J. McGee, and eight rifles, two shot guns and eight deer skins confiscated. They pleaded not guilty when taken to court, and Justice Fros. let them off on the ground that they were not citizens, knowing they would not pay a fine, and would regard free board in jail in the winter season as a favor rather than a punishment.

A Chicago gentleman, H. L. Thompson, who was arrested near Eagle River, Vilas county, for hunting without a license, proposes to test the Wisconsin game laws. He pleaded not guilty when arrested, and when convicted by a jury took an appeal to the circuit court. Frank Essets, another non-resident arrested on the same charge in Pierce county, paid a fine of $50 and costs, and the same punishment was meted out to Chris Larson and Joan Nelson of Burnett county, H. L. Brown of Marquette county and Adolph Hilke of Pierce county, all arrested by deputy game wardens within a few days.

ANARCHY MUST BE SUPPRESSED

Twilight Club Voices Its Protests Against Supporters of Red Flag.

IT IS NOT AMERICAN

Symposium of Radical Views on How to Exterminate This Foreign Product.

DEFEND FREE SPEECH

The sixth year of the history of the Twilight club began very happily at the Hotel Myers last evening when about 125 members gathered together for the first meeting of the season. The customary appetizing supper was served and the general good cheer which prevailed showed the members enjoyed getting together again for an evening of sociability and profitable discussion.

A very happy feature of the occasion was the sending of the following telegram of greeting:

Greeting to Ex-Supt. Mayne

"Janesville, Wis., Oct. 8.—To D. D. Mayne, Ishpeming, Mich.—The Twilight Club, beginning the sixth annual session, sends greetings to its founder. Signed: All of Us."

The telegram was sent at the beginning of the evening's meeting, on the motion of Rev. Robert C. Denison, his suggestion receiving the unanimous endorsement of the club. Those who know Mr. Mayne felt satisfied that the message received a warm welcome, and that he was gratified by this expression of remembrance of him. It was the first meeting of the Twilight club which had not been animated by his presence since its organization and he was doubtless present in spirit last evening.

H. F. Bliss was the leader of the evening. In the absence of any officers to speak a word of greeting on the occasion of the opening of the sixth year of the club, he suggested that everyone shake hands with themselves and with each other because they were connected with a progressive organization. He spoke briefly of the value of the Twilight club to the city and to the individual members and hoped that the coming year would be the best in the history of the organization. He also hoped for the time when the borders of the club would be extended to include every professional and business man in the city.

Arrangements for the Year.

Judge C. L. Fifield then presented the report of the committee on arrangements for this year. The substance of this report having been already printed. The report included the topics for the season's meetings and a regret that the leaders of all meetings should insist on the observance of the rule limiting all speakers to ten minutes.

After Rev. Denison's motion to send a message of greeting to Supt. Mayne, the subject of the evening's meeting, Anarchism, was announced Mr. Bliss making brief introductory remarks.

Supt. Hutton's Remarks

The club was glad to welcome as the first speaker of the year, Supt. A. J. Hutton, of the State School for the Blind, who has so recently identified himself with the interests of this city. Mr. Hutton is an able speaker and he gave the "History of the Movement" in a manner that commanded the undivided attention of those present.

Mr. Hutton said that the duties of citizenship and the problem of life today call for men to labor under greater brain pressure than ever before. In many instances physical strength has been neglected and the mind breaks down in greater or less degree under the strain. Anarchists are degenerate because they are morally insane.

There are two classes of anarchists, the leaders who are people of intelligence and education but who have become insane over the problem of bringing about a state of conditions.

MUSICAL TREAT FOR CITY OF JANESVILLE

Negotiations Under Way to Secure the Pittsburgh Orchestra—Musical-Literary is in Charge.

George H. Wilson, of Pittsburgh, manager of the Carnegie Music hall, the Pittsburgh orchestra and the Art society of Pittsburgh, was in the city yesterday to offer the people of Janesville an opportunity of enjoying a musical treat such as has never come to this city. Mr. Wilson was here representing the Pittsburgh orchestra, which appears for the first time this year as far west as Chicago and Milwaukee. The orchestra will appear in Chicago, Monday and Tuesday, October 9th and 10th on the occasion of the anniversary of the opening of the Auditorium. There are only two open dates, the 11th and 12th of December and Manager Wilson would like to appear in Rockford and this city on those evenings if the people want him more than other cities do.

The Pittsburgh orchestra is not a speculative organization but is a permanent one founded and maintained by the Art society of Pittsburgh for the artistic advancement of that community. Back of it stand seventy-five wealthy men whose combined fortune is $225,000,000 and who are pledged to meet all expenses of the orchestra outside of the amount paid by the receipts of the concerts. Last year $80,000 was spent in supporting the orchestra for five months and of that amount the guarantors paid $22,000.

The orchestra is an outgrowth of Carnegie's benevolence in presenting Pittsburgh with a fine library building and music hall in 1895. Three months after the completion of the Music hall the Art society realized a long cherished plan in the foundation of the orchestra on a plan which would permit its value to be handicapped for financial reasons. The organization now entering upon its seventh season has become a necessity in the artistic life of Pittsburgh. The higher life of the people has been served by the adherence to the best standards of musical art and the city's glory today as a municipality is in some degree due to the elevating and refining influences of the concerts given weekly by the orchestra. It has been said that the orchestra is one of the city's most valuable assets. Its maintenance is an obligation to the guarantors which the community acknowledges for without their generous and enthusiastic support the constantly enlarging plans for development would be impossible.

These plans are constantly extending. Last year 117 concerts were given outside of Pittsburgh, in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and as far west as Detroit. This year the orchestra will come farther west and it is an unusual opportunity which brings it within the reach of the city. During the five months' season 18 evening and 18 afternoon concerts will be given at home and the balance of the time will be devoted to other cities. Next Monday the orchestra will begin a week's engagement at the Pan-American and it may be of interest to know that one of Mr. Carnegie's plans for the future is to take the orchestra to Europe. It will be the first American orchestra to go abroad.

If Janesville secures this orchestra music lovers will hear sixty of the finest musicians be secured, under the leadership of Victor Herbert, whose reputation as a writer of comic operas and a musical director, is world-wide. The programs which he selects are not universally heavy, but express Mr. Herbert's catholic taste and his knowledge of schools and epochs in music. His programs are entertaining as well as classical and please the popular as well as the cultivated musical taste.

It is asserted that no concert has ever paid expenses, even though the receipts have been very large. This is because the expenses are so heavy and the prices charged for the concert are within the reach of the people. It is not expected to pay expenses here, but the manager feels that he must at least be assured of an audience worthy of the concert.

The matter will be brought up at the meeting of the Musical-Literary society next Tuesday evening and an effort will be made to devise some plan, either by personal guarantees or a subscription sale to secure the concert for this city. It is to be hoped that all people interested in the culture of the city will unite with the Musical-Literary society in its disinterested efforts.

Dog Fight on South Jackson Street. A dog fight on South Jackson street occasioned considerable amusement last evening. Two ladies in the neighborhood felt confident that the contestants were human brutes and one rushed forth with a lamp in her hand, while the other waved a dish pan and cloth vigorously. Just what their method was, no one exactly knew, although it was surmised that there might have been some vague plan to carry light to the benighted minds or to give them a good rubbing down in the dishpan.

A well known druggist appeared on the scene and tried in vain to calm the ladies and convince them that the trouble was nothing worse than a dog fight. But the ladies knew that is compounded with the greatest cure and contains nothing injurious. It is a safe and reliable remedy for stomach complaints and has a record of fifty years of cure to its credit. Many prominent physicians prescribe and recommend it as a cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency, Belching, Nervousness and Insomnia. Try it. The genuine must have our Private Stamp over the neck of the bottle.

it was men pounding each other terribly and they refused to be quieted. By this time a large audience of amused spectators had gathered. When the excited ladies discovered beyond all doubt that the fight was between dogs and not men they rushed into the house and got a pan of water to throw on them. In the meantime one of the dogs had received considerably the worst of the encounter, having lost an eye.

To Skeptical Asthmatics.

The truly marvelous cures of asthma which have already been effected by Dr. Rudolph Schiffman, certainly call for notice. His preparation, (Schiffman's Asthma Cure) not only gives instant relief in the most stubborn and obstinate cases, but positively cures, in proof of which hear what the town clerk at Cavalier, N. D., Mr. W. Serenus, says: "I was troubled with asthma for 20 years, about 8 years ago I started to use your Asthma Cure, and have not had an attack for six years."

Schiffman's Asthma Cure can be obtained of all druggists at 50c and $1.00 per package, or by writing direct to Dr. Schiffman, Box 894, St. Paul, Minn.

Enjoyable Afternoon Party.

Few more enjoyable afternoon companies have ever been given in the city than the neighborhood party at which Mrs. Sarah Bailey and her daughter, Miss Fannie Bailey, entertained a number of their neighbors at their home on Eastern avenue. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Lee who have recently moved into the neighborhood and this pleasant manner of welcoming them was one worthy of the well known hospitality of the hostesses. The afternoon was spent in a pleasantly social manner and the supper which was served was a delicious one.

which they deem desirable. They are dangerous only as their preachings inspire their followers to action. The second class are the followers, who become crazed by the preaching of the leaders and come to denounce government in any form. The assassins are to be found in this class. An interesting history of the growth of anarchy since 1872 was given.

On Anarchy in Russia. W. O. Newhouse spoke on "Anarchism as Exemplified in Russia." Russia, the empire of discontent, is the hotbed of anarchistic movements, the fault being due largely to the form of Russian government. The Nihilists are regarded as martyrs in their own country by a great many people.

They come from the higher classes and are well educated the most of them being young men. The real power of Nihilism was first felt in 1880 when they began advocating the destruction of all government heads. It has grown in power although the movement is less radical at present than formerly. Many of the Nihilists seek refuge in this country, bringing their doctrines with them and fostering the spirit of discontent here. They are welcomed to this country and in notable instances made much of.

Address of Supt. Buell. Supt. H. C. Buell spoke on "Anarchism in Western Europe and America." It is not an American product but an imported article which had its origin in the brain of a Frenchman. In the speaker's opinion, anarchism was the outgrowth of socialism. The first American anarchists were centered in Boston with a man named Warren for a leader. The New York band finds its inspiration in most who was driven from Russia to England and was then forced to flee to this country. He began at once by the founding of a society and the publishing of a newspaper to strike at the homes, the churches and the forms of government which are the foundation of American liberty.

The Patterson anarchists are of Italian origin and are the worst in this country. Malatesta, the leader, came here three years ago. He sent Dresel to Europe to kill King Humbert and President McKinley's assassin was from the same school. The meetings at Patterson are devoted to planning murderous attacks. The country should do something to curtail the abuse which is made of freedom of speech.

Duty of the United States. Several gentlemen spoke of the "Duty of the United States Toward Anarchy." W. T. Carle thought this country was largely responsible for anarchy because of the too large construction which it puts upon the right of free speech. People who are banished from other countries are welcomed here and permitted to preach and print the very doctrines for which they were banished. He believed in emigration restrictions and a close watch over the anarchists already here. Mr. Carle also spoke bitterly against the manner in which men are held up to ridicule in political campaigns.

S. C. Burnham believed that anarchists should be treated like mad dogs. The question presented a different aspect in this country than in any other. We allow freedom of speech and it is carried too far. There should be a stern application of the law. Some of the utterances and printed articles are clearly treasonable and should be punished with the death sentence. Criticism of government officials should be permitted but not ridicule. There should be a law making anarchy a treason punishable by death.

Careful of Free Speech. M. G. Jeffris was opposed to curtailing freedom of speech or press and believed such a course would serve to increase anarchy faster than anything else. He believed a greater danger than anarchy lay in the common disregard of our laws by the majority of our people.

J. L. Mahoney spoke against too hasty action on the problem of anarchy. The present time, when the people are wrought up over the recent tragedy, is not the proper one to take any definite steps. He was opposed to curtailing free speech or free press.

Dr. S. B. Buckmaster was chosen leader of the next meeting on motion of Stanley B. Smith and the interesting meeting adjourned.

THOMAS JEFFERSON and "RIP VAN WINKLE"

Thomas Jefferson, "Rip Van Winkle," and his pirate crew are coming to the Myers Grand Thursday, Oct. 10. Thomas Jefferson is a worthy son of Joseph Jefferson, and one that a father may feel proud of, for it is said he will keep the name of Jefferson before the public for years to come as his success in financially and artistically that he will continue acting until the public become tired of Rip which from present indications will live on forever and ever.

The recent success achieved by Mr. Otis Skinner in his revival of "Francesca da Rimini" is by far the most ambitious of the well known actor's career. Notwithstanding the high class of entertainment heretofore presented by Mr. Skinner, it is safe to state that nothing he had been seen in here before surpasses it in the magnificence and completeness of its presentation. Mr. Skinner and his supporting company will be seen in its entirety at the Myers Grand Monday, Oct. 21.

Felton's Vaudeville Company played to a fair house at the Myers Grand last evening. The advertised matinee for today was not given, but one of the best vaudeville bills that good talent can provide will be given at this evening's performance. There will be a new program throughout.

Interesting and Instructive Meeting

Held in Parlors of the Congregational Church Last Evening.

The Loani band of King's Daughters of the Congregational church began the year's work with a very interesting meeting held in the church parlors last evening. In spite of the rainy weather, nearly forty young women were present, the large attendance being an eloquent tribute to the living interest which this progressive organization inspires in its young women.

Shortly after six o'clock a very dainty and appetizing supper was served, being furnished, as usual, by a committee of young ladies from the society. The supper hour was one of sociability and was followed by a short and interesting program given at 7 o'clock.

Miss Frances Ryckman was the leader for the evening. One of the best things on the program was the report of the treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Farnsworth, which was simply to the effect that the entire amount of the society's pledge to the foreign missions, $150, had been paid in and sent to the Woman's Board of Missions for the Interior before the close of the year, which ended yesterday. The young ladies of the society raise their pledge entirely by voluntary offerings of a certain amount a month.

Miss Belle Angell read a part of President McKinley's address at the ecumenical convention in New York last year, in which he endorsed the work of the missionaries in the highest terms.

Mrs. W. S. Jeffris gave an interesting report of some of the things which she heard and saw at the state convention of the Congregational church in Milwaukee last week. She spoke especially of the address given by Dr. Ament, the returned missionary who has spent so many years in China and who bore an important part in the trying times during the siege and massacre.

Mrs. Jeffris told of some of Dr. Ament's experiences and said that in the light of what the missionaries suffered, the criticisms which people in this country indulge in, seemed very small and contemptible. She also spoke of the high tribute which Dr. Ament paid the native Chinese Christians, telling how they underwent the most excruciating torture and death rather than deny their religion.

Mrs. Jeffris also told the society of the many inquiries which were made of her concerning the organization and said that the Congregational church of this city was famed throughout the state for its excellent missionary society of young ladies.

Miss May Cunningham told an instance of the days following the Chinese massacre which had been told her by Mrs. Goodrich, the returned missionary. Some of the missionaries and native Christians took possession of a deserted castle which had been gone through twice by the soldiers and there were still left the costliest of garments, embroideries and jewels, strewn about in the harlem. The magnificence was almost past the belief of the American eyes.

The missionaries put the place in order, selling only what was necessary to buy food for the native Christians dependent on them, and when the owner of the castle returned he was so grateful for the care which had been taken of his property that he could not express his thanks and finally he went to a storeroom which was filled with costly furs and presented the women with some of them.

A brief report of the farewell meeting held in the city some time ago for Miss Cora Welpton, who has gone to teach music in Maras college, Turkey, was given by Mrs. O. H. Brand, after which the meeting came to a close with singing and the repetition of the Christian Endeavor benediction.

THE CHART IS WORTHLESS

Schley's Attorneys Demolish Official Map of the Battle.

A JUMBLE OF COMPROMISES.

The Proceedings Bring Out a Great Deal of Technical Matter but the Members of the Court Show an Interest in All the Details.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Admiral Schley's attorneys managed to establish the fact during the progress of the inquiry that the carefully prepared chart purporting to be the unanimous declaration of several navigators of the correct positions of the vessels engaged in the Santiago sea fight during various intervals of the battle was in reality a jumble of compromises, satisfactory to none of the men engaged in preparing it. This evidence was brought out by Attorney Rayner while examining Commander Richard Walnwright, who was chairman of the board that prepared the chart and who commanded the famous little Gloucester during the battle. Commander Walnwright's testimony was very positive in character. He concluded his statement by saying that not one of the navigating officers who signed the report adopting the chart believed that it was correct. The day's proceedings brought out a great deal of technical matter, but the members of the court never lost their deep interest in all that was said.

Testimony Is Interesting.
Lieutenant C. W. Dyson of the bureau of steam engineering of the Navy Department was recalled early in the proceedings and continued his evidence concerning the steaming condition of the Brooklyn and her engines on the day of the engagement. Lieutenant M. L. Bristol, who, as ensign, was watch and division officer on the Texas during the Spanish war, talked of the Santiago and Cienfuegos blockades in an entertaining manner, going into all the details of the watch kept and the patrolling methods employed. He contradicted the evidence of Lieutenant Commander Hodgson concerning the distance of the Brooklyn from the nearest Spanish ships at the time the "loop" was made, and cast doubts on the accuracy of the stadimeter with which the commander had made his measurements. Lieutenant Bristol's testimony was enlivened by a tilt between the attorneys, Mr. Rayner and Mr. Hanna finding occasion to begin an interchange of sarcastic remarks which lasted most of the afternoon.

Corrects His Testimony.
Captain W. M. Folger, who was recalled for the purpose of correcting his testimony of yesterday, was asked further questions concerning the blockade of Santiago. In reply to a question by Captain Lemly whether he had had any conversation with Commodore Schley during the blockade he said: "Toward evening of one of the days, the 30th, there was an extended, very severe rainstorm, so severe that I feared Cervera had gotten out, as it was sufficiently long to have permitted him to do so. I went on board the flagship the next day, thinking it my duty to tell the commodore what I had seen as to the blockade as kept by the Japanese off the port of Wei-Hai-Wel, where similarly an enemy's fleet was within a fortified harbor. I said to the commodore that the adoption of the tactics of the Japanese, forming a circle directly in front of the harbor, would, in my opinion, be preferable, as then it would be difficult for anything to get out."

The judge advocate then asked him: "Was there any reply by the commodore?"

"I cannot testify exactly as to his reply," said the witness. "I would prefer not to do so. He did not agree with me as to the necessity for it." Captain Folger also said that he had no recollection of a picket line on the inside of the American fleet. At the request of Captain Parker of counsel for Admiral Schley, the witness examined the log of the New Orleans for May 30 and 31, 1898, for the purpose of determining accurately the state of the weather on those days, but he declined to modify his statement of yesterday that the weather on those days was bad.

Lieutenant Dyson Called.
Lieutenant Dyson, who appeared next, testified, in answer to questions by Captain Lemly, concerning the steaming condition of the Brooklyn on July 3. The witness stated that on the morning of that day fires were only banked under three of the vessel's seven boilers having no steam in them. He added that on the day of the fight it took twenty-five minutes to start the fires.

Walnwright Takes the Stand.
The appearance of Commander Richard Walnwright on the witness stand caused considerable new interest. Walnwright commanded the converted yacht Gloucester at the battle of Santiago, and won fame by his daring in attacking the enemy in his small craft.

He was executive officer of the Maine when that vessel was blown up at Havana and assisted in investigating the explosion, which precipitated the war with Spain. During all that time Walnwright kept his vow that he would never set foot on Spanish soil before the destruction of the Maine was avenged. That he did his part toward wringing vengeance on the Spaniards all connected with the Santiago campaign admit. Commander Walnwright is one of the heroes of the war who at once leaped into popular favor by gallant action, but, unlike others—notably Hobson—he has done nothing since then to cheapen his fame.

Rivers and Harbors Congress.
Baltimore, Md., Oct. 9.—Boards of trade and commercial bodies in the principal cities and ports of twenty-eight states are represented by 180 delegates in the Rivers and Harbors Congress, which has opened here. From the speeches it is evident that a determined effort is to be made to induce congress to recognize the necessity for voting appropriations for river and harbor improvements.

Great Fire in Chicago.
Chicago, Oct. 9.—Six hundred and fifty-eight thousand dollars' worth of property went up in smoke and flame on the banks of the north branch of the river. The fire totally destroyed the docks of the Peabody Coal company and a five-story brick building adjoining. Other losses were sustained by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company and the Davidson Marble company.

Locktender's Body in Canal.
Massillon, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Holston Eachus, locktender, was found dead, his body floating in the canal near his shanty south of this city. Eachus received his month's pay Monday, and as no money was found in the clothing on the body the police suspect murder. Eachus was seventy-eight years old. He and James A. Garfield worked on the same barge fifty-three years ago.

Florida's Orange Crop.
Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 9.—The orange season in Florida begins in ten days. It is figured by Steven Powers, secretary of the State Agricultural society, that 1,100,000 boxes will cover the crop. The rehabilitation of the orange industry in Florida since the fatal freeze of 1898 has shown more progress in the last year than in the five years previous.

Ellis Glenn Set at Liberty.
Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 9.—Ellis Glenn, the strange man-woman whose dual life has excited the comment of the people of the entire country, is at liberty, having been discharged by Judge John Hay Jackson of the United States circuit court. Judge Jackson's decision was that there was no case made by the prosecution.

Street Duel Fatal to Two.
Houston, Tex., Oct. 9.—Walter Malch and Bob Kegans engaged in a street duel, the former being instantly killed and Kegans mortally wounded. The trouble, it is said, arose over a trivial affair. Four shots were fired, Kegans receiving a bullet through the abdomen and Malch one through the heart.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST
Partly cloudy, slightly cooler to night; fair Thursday.

A GOOD NEWSPAPER.

It requires money, brains, energy and common sense to make a good newspaper. If the venture is profitable, it requires in addition to these necessary requisites, time to lay the foundation and build the structure. The making of a newspaper, unlike almost any other business, requires more time to put it on a paying basis than any enterprise, in which capital and brains are invested. Time to gain the confidence of the people as well as their support. Time to make the paper a felt want in the average home, and to create a feeling of loss when an issue is missed. Time to study the wants of a constituency, and intelligently meet the same.

These conditions are peculiar to the local paper, where the same readers year after year contribute to its success, and where the local field is more thoroughly covered than is possible to any outside journal. It is true in a larger sense of the state paper, that attempts every day, in addition to a wide range of general news, to furnish the important happenings around the state.

The people of Wisconsin are more intensely interested in Badger state news than any other class, and it is perfectly natural that they should be. The people of the commonwealth have many interests in common, both social, commercial and political, and the public journal that properly appreciates these conditions, is entitled to encouragement and support.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has long been recognized as the leading newspaper of the state. It has enjoyed, for many years, an enviable reputation, earned by hard and honest work. When the present management bought it they were not investing in an experiment, for the paper had long since passed the experimental stage.

The paper was capable of being improved, as is every other paper, and money and enterprise has been freely invested in its improvement. As a result, the paper has gained prestige in the state, and compares favorably today with the best metropolitan papers of the country. It covers the news field, both home and foreign, and every nook and corner of the state is recognized. The Sunday edition is an encyclopedia of information, not surpassed by any Sunday paper in the west. The Milwaukee Sentinel should be more generally read by Wisconsin people. The paper is entitled to liberal patronage. The home field is thoroughly covered, while the editorial page is strong and vigorous. Wisconsin for Wisconsin, is a good motto, and the Sentinel is distinctively for Wisconsin.

SHIP SUBSIDY.

Among other things discussed with the president by Spooner, on his recent visit to the White house, was the ship subsidy bill. It is reported that the Wisconsin senator said to President Roosevelt, that the passage of the bill would cost the party the next election. His reason for this strong statement was that the west is emphatically opposed to the measure.

There is no question but that Senator Spooner is in position to know something about public sentiment on this question, and it is safe to say that his estimate, so far as the west is concerned, is correct.

While it is perfectly natural that the seaboard states should favor class legislation of pronounced type, just as the far western states favored free coinage, it is just as natural that the country at large should oppose, and congress will discover if it takes time to listen, that ship subsidy or any other subsidy for the benefit of classes, at the expense of the masses, is extremely unpopular.

There are some strong advocates of the ship subsidy measure. This was true of the free silver heresy. A merchant marine is a high sounding title, and when you add to it the national emblem, floating from the masthead of American ships, in every harbor of the world, it possesses an air of patriotism that is supposed to thrill every American heart, but they don't thrill worth a nickel to that sort of sophistry, because over against the argument is the dollar that the average tax payer still has an interest in.

The ship subsidy bill will not pass. It will slumber in the pigeon hole with oleomargarine and various other schemes that seek to benefit the classes.

WHAT ABOUT SEWERAGE?

Almost every day of the week some one asks The Gazette "What about sewerage?" and the paper is compelled to say, "Ask us something easy." The council may not fully understand that the people after saying emphatically, "We favor sewerage," have a right to know if anything is being done in the matter. A committee was appointed to make a tour of investigation. Did they make it, and what did they find? Many streets are being permanently macadamized, only to be torn up in the near future, if sewerage is ordered. In the meantime private drainage at liberal expense is going on and the whole thing is unfair and unjust to tax payers. The least that the council can do is to present an intelligent plan for adoption or rejection. If the plan requires a term of years to complete, it can be started by putting in the principal mains, and laying the foundation for a complete system.

The vote on the question expressed not only a desire for city sewerage, but a willingness to adopt some practical plan. The people who voted in favor, and they were largely in the majority, were not unduly influenced. They realized that the greatest need both in a sanitary and commercial way was a system of public drainage.

Just why the council have ignored this expression, and bent their energies to public buildings, streets, and other improvements, is a question in which the public are interested, and the people have a right to ask for information.

There is nothing to indicate that public sentiment has changed on this question, and whatever may be the individual or collective opinion of the council, that body is exceeding its authority when it assumes to ignore the expressed sentiment of a majority of the tax payers.

The columns of The Gazette are open to the council for any statement they are prepared to make. If any progress has been made, the people want to know it, and if the question has been ignored, say so like men, and give a reason.

"There's many a slip," was fully realized by Sir Thomas Lipton, when the Shamrock crossed the line a minute late, after leading the contest for ten miles, and when victory seemed assured. American sympathy is with Sir Thomas, while the cup stays on this side.

Admiral Sampson is said to be a total wreck. The strain of a court of inquiry is more severe than an engagement, and general wreckage is about the only victory in sight. It would be better for the jealous officers concerned, if the government had found occupation for them in foreign waters.

The Oshkosh Northwestern is one of the best inland dailies in the state. It invests money and brain freely to make a newspaper and succeeds. Its only weakness is its temporary desertion of old time associates, in a vain effort, to worship a creed in which it lacks confidence.

Editor Lush of the La Crosse "organ," is away on a fishing trip. While resting himself the people of La Crosse are given a breathing spell, and populism lies dormant.

Some one has suggested that Mr. Britts, the Richland Center cyclone agent, experiment with a mild tornado. If there is anything left of him but a memory, he can tackle a cyclone later.

The Nellsville priest, who is accused of abusing the little orphan girl, has discovered that anarchy is not the only crime that excites a mob.

Edwin M. Burke, the Chicago oil inspector, has discovered that the way of the transgressor is difficult, even when lubricated.

Beloit is long on factories, but short on houses. Fifty are required to supply urgent demand. The city needs a building association.

You can't tell how far a toad will jump, until after he has made the effort, any more than you can tell what the private secretary will do next.

Lieutenant Governor Stone is a good hunter, but he is only permitted to hunt around the capitol at long range. The preserve has been preempted.

Mr. Haugen is trotting in a class all by himself. He is a little too swift for the average Scandinavian.

The price of butter does not affect the milk of human kindness, which is still in active demand.

The boy that made a reputation by "standing on the burning deck," is lost in the shuffle, during the present naval engagement in Washington.

The heroes of the late war! Where are they? Fighting for supremacy in a court room.

La Crosse Republican-Leader: The best evidence yet given by President Roosevelt, that he intends to carry out the policies of his illustrious predecessor, was his summoning of the Hon. John C. Spooner in counsel Saturday. Wisconsin needs no greater assurance than this, and the cockles of her heart are already warmed for the new occupant of the White House.

Green Bay Gazette: Wisconsin democrats are in a heated controversy over their nominees for governor in 1902. There is no occasion, gentlemen, for becoming excited. When the time comes to confer this empty honor upon one of your own party you will be scouring the state in search of a man willing to make the sacrifice, if you can't keep cool during the fall and winter your condition next summer will be alarming.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE STREET.

Nerve is much more common than courage, and often assumes the name of the latter.

It requires a greater exertion of nerve force to be bad instead of good to say nothing of the contingent disadvantages.

The man who is inclined to work for fame should pass by the newspaper offices and join the press bureau of a circus.

Those who have nothing to read but books and let human nature in the raw pass by unnoticed, do not generally startle the world with ideas.

A really wise Providence would have ordained that excessive talking would shorten life; but unfortunately it does not, except in communities where they shoot.—Milwaukee Journal.

WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW.

Life is not all champagne; sometimes it is only Schuylkill water. One can be as brave as the proverbial lion—when the trouble belongs to somebody else.

The man who is always waiting for something to turn up may some day wake up to realize that he is being turned down.

There are times when the knowledge of how to speak seven languages may not be so valuable as the ability to keep still in one.

When a man feels well enough acquainted to go to sleep during an evening call on a woman, the romance has begun to be eliminated from their friendship.—Philadelphia Times.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

Every man likes to lean on some other man. Pictures of Cupid should be called in at the same time straw hats are.

Every loafer hangs around some other man who would otherwise work. Give a boy his own way till he is 10 years of age, and he will always look it.

People have as little use for a poor baseball club as they have for a poor brass band.

Every unmarried man is told at least ten times a day that he doesn't know what trouble is.

What a lot of affection a woman can throw into her voice when she asks a guest to have another biscuit!

In some families a book is never bought except when a great man dies, and then "pa" buys his "life" after a long session with the agent.—Atchison Globe.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR

The stony path is a slippery path. Homesickness is sentimentality. Lovesickness is sentimentality.

The cure for a slight attack of love is a very heavy attack.

Mighty few women are so warm-hearted that they enjoy seeing some one give something outside of the family.

Generally a woman thinks buying a railroad ticket requires as much experience and investigation as buying railroad stocks and bonds.—New York Press.

WILL BE LAID AT REST IN OAK HILL

FUNERAL OF LATE LEON AYERS TOMORROW AT 2:30 P. P.

Pall Bearers Have Been Chosen from the Senior Class at the High School—Ayers Was Not Hurt in a Football Game—Mystery of the Suicide.

Al that is mortal of Leon Ayers will be laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery tomorrow afternoon. Funeral services will be held in the cemetery chapel at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Robert C. Denison being the officiating clergyman. Members of the senior class will attend the services in a body. Owing to the fact that the chapel is not a large building, the other classes of the high school will not be excused from school, although the funeral will be attended by members of the Junior class who were personal friends of the deceased young man. He had been a member of this class until this year, when he was able to classify as a Senior. Arrangements have also been made by the classes to send floral offerings and resolutions of condolence.

The pall bearers have been chosen from the young men of the senior class and will be Edwin Saunders, his most intimate friend, Ross Bump, Rollin Lewis, William Fox, Matthew Roberts and Merrill Crissey.

Members of the high school deplore the fact that any blame for the sad event has been attributed to football and believe that Mr. Ayers, the father, was mistaken when he asserted at the coroner's inquest yesterday that his son had been injured in a recent game and was unconscious for some time.

He had been present at the game in question and had watched it carefully, but did not remember that Leon had been hurt. Other spectators of the game were certain that he was not unconscious from injuries.

In a conversation Mr. Ayers said that he based his statement on a report which he received that his son had been injured. At first he thought it was his younger son. He knew nothing about it personally, as he was not at the game.

Superintendent Buell investigated the matter very thoroughly yesterday afternoon after the inquest.

Members of the family say that they cannot explain the young man's act in any way beyond the fact that he committed it while he was mentally unbalanced. He had shown signs of being slightly before, but nothing had been thought of it.

Russia in Conciliatory Mood.

New York, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from St. Petersburg quotes Director Shipoff of the department of finance as follows on behalf of M. de Witte:

"The inquiry of the minister of finance concerning his views on the United States eventually entering a course of more liberal commercial agreements was forwarded to Sotah in the Caucasus, where the minister is temporarily staying. His excellency instructs me to state he will be glad at any time to return to the status quo prior to the raising by the United States of the duty on Russian sugar. In order to give an answer regarding Russia's attitude toward a more liberal commercial policy of the United States it would be necessary to know, in concrete, of what this policy might consist."

Leaving Her Indian Home.

New York, Oct. 9.—Sister Sanghanna, a Buddhist nun, is coming to New York soon to lecture on the condition of the women of India and to interest the women of America in their behalf. Navy—Clifford H. West, captain; George H. Stafford, lieutenant commander; Raymond Stone, lieutenant; John M. Hudgins, lieutenant.

Cuban Imports Smaller.

Washington, Oct. 9.—A statement on the importation of cotton manufactures in Cuba during the year ended June 30, prepared in the division of Insular affairs of the war department, shows that during the fiscal year 1901 the imports were $6,031,905, as against $7,071,792 during the fiscal year 1900, a decrease of 15 per cent. Germany, Italy and Austria were the only countries that increased their exports of these goods to Cuba.

Norway's Big Army Estimate.

Christiania, Norway, Oct. 9.—There is some comment here at the large total of the extraordinary army estimates proposed by the cabinet. The expenditures include 1,180,000 kroner for the defenses of the land approaches to Christiania, 1,400,000 kroner for quick-firing guns, 800,000 kroner additional to be expended on forts near the town, and 120,000 kroner to defray the expenses of laying mines near Bergen. The ordinary army estimates are 14,000,000 kroner.

VANDALS ENTER M'GIFFIN'S HOUSE

It Was Discovered That Nearly All of the Lead Water Pipe Had Been Punctured.

H. G. McGiffin is much wrought up over a piece of vandalism that was committed at the home he is erecting on Sinclair street, in the Third ward. The house is fast nearing completion and the bulk of the plumbing for the building is about finished. In the bath room are several sections of lead water pipe exposed to view, as in all bath rooms. A few days ago when the masons were at work plastering the room one of them chanced to notice a good sized hole on the under side of a bend in the pipe.

The hole looked as if it had been punched through the pipe with a large nail, and was done by some one who thought it would not be discovered until the house was finished and the water turned on.

The mason reported his discovery and a further investigation of the matter was made. It was found that the pipes had been punctured in numerous places where they would not be liable to be seen unless a person was looking for the holes.

The pipes are so badly damaged that it will necessitate the removal of all those in the bath room and doing the work all over again, making a loss that cannot be estimated until the pipes are replaced. Mr. McGiffin is at loss to know why anyone should try to injure him in this manner. He has no enemies in Janesville that he knows of, and can see no reason for the act.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Episcopal's Reconsider and Defeat Huntington Amendment.

AN ERROR FOUND IN COUNT.

Episcopal Convention Hears Reports on Proposal for a Change in Name—The Marginal Bible Committee's Report Is Read.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 9.—The Episcopal convention reconsidered its vote by which the Huntington amendment to the constitution was adopted, and it was defeated by the narrow margin of one vote. When the convention assembled for the day Nebraska promptly challenged the count, saying it had been placed on the affirmative side when it had voted negatively. There was a stiff contest for every inch of ground, but Nebraska had its way, the vote was reconsidered and the amendment defeated. How long the high church people will be able to hold their advantage remains to be seen. It is known that the Rev. Dr. Fulton of Philadelphia led the Pennsylvania clerical delegation against the amendment, because of its form. Had this delegation voted affirmatively it would have carried.

Unaltered for Three Years.
Dr. Fulton has given notice that he will support the original form, because of its greater safeguards, when it is presumed that Pennsylvania will then support it. It is assumed that the Rev. D. Huntington will reintroduce it. However, that is wholly a new proposition, and one that must remain unaltered for three years. It is certain, however, that the contest is not to end where it now is. The Huntington amendment provides for the use of modified forms of worship by congregations willing to accept the spiritual oversight of a bishop. It was opposed by Chicago, Milwaukee, and other Central State delegations. Majority and minority reports were brought in concerning the memorial of Milwaukee and the resolution of Colorado effecting a change in the name of the church to the American Catholic Church of the United States. The majority report, made by the Rev. Dr. Hodges of Baltimore, deems it unwise for the committee to act until it knows the mind of the convention, and the minority report, made by the Rev. Dr. Oberly of New Jersey, asks a committee to put the change in proper form for action by this convention. Apparently in a negative mood, the deputies in the afternoon rejected article five of the amendments to the constitution, providing for the admission of dioceses, doing so largely upon the appeals of the Dioceses of Western Texas and Massachusetts. The report of the marginal Bible committee was read, and debate upon its adoption was progressing at the hour of adjournment. The matter has already passed the Bishops.

Chinaman Gives to Columbia.
New York, Oct. 9.—President Low of Columbia College, in his annual report to the trustees of the college, makes special mention of a gift of $12,000 from "Dean Lung" to be added to the gift of $100,000 anonymously made some time ago to the university for the establishment of a department of Chinese language, literature, religion and law. "Dean Lung," the report says, is a Chinaman. It is probable, the report adds, that this is the first gift on record from a Chinaman to a university of western learning. President Low says that the donor of the $100,000 had been led to the belief that an American university would be the best agency through which to spread a thorough knowledge of China among the people of the United States.

To Give House to Charity.
San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The widow of Collis P. Huntington has announced, the Chronicle says, that the Huntington house at California and Taylor streets will never again be privately occupied, and is eventually to be given over to charity, presumably to some hospital. The Hopkins and Stanford mansions, among the most splendid of the palaces that top the California street hill, already belong to the people, the one through the University of California, the other through Stanford University. Thus three of the four men who have made their fortunes out of the Southern Pacific have in the end made over their homes to the public.

Krause Remanded for a Month.
London, Oct. 9.—Great interest was displayed in Bow street police court in the case of Dr. Krause, formerly governor of Johannesburg, who has been in jail for some time on a charge of high treason in communicating with the Boers. Dr. Krause was finally remanded for a month.

Fire in Cracker Plant.
Chicago, Oct. 8.—The five-story brick plant of the McMahon Cracker and Biscuit Company, 46-50 Green street, was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock, entailing a loss of $200,000.

Carnegie Gives to Irish City.
London, Oct. 8.—The benefactions of Andrew Carnegie are reaching Ireland. He has offered the city of Waterford £5,000 with which to build a library.

Seth Low's resignation as president of Columbia university is accepted and Nicholas Butler is named as temporary successor.

PRESIDENT ADAMS GAINING STRENGTH

Head of the Wisconsin University Is Now Considered Entirely Out of Danger.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 9.—President Adams of the state university, who has been ill for about two weeks, is much better today and his physician, Dr. George Keenan, says he is out of all danger and will probably be out in about a week.

The report that President Adams will resign at a special meeting of the regents Friday is not believed. It evidently had its foundation in the president's illness combined with the fact that a meeting is to be held, but the latter was called before the president became ill, its purpose being to receive bids for the new agricultural college.

There is a feeling, however, that in view of the precarious health of both the president and Mrs. Adams his resignation before the end of the college year will not be surprising.
